

In My Shoes

Put yourself in my shoes
The way it must feel
To walk the steps of your house
And tell your family the news.

Put yourself in my shoes
The way it must feel
To watch as people in suits
Carrying you to your grave.

Put yourself in my shoes
The way it must feel
To know I sent the message
That you tried responding to.

Put yourself in my shoes
The way it must feel
To be inside the other car
Not knowing it was my last day.

Before you made your decision
You should have thought
About all the people it affects
When you chose to send that text.
