

Arrive Alive

To those who Drink and drive

If you've had a little to much, you might lose your lunch, but if you get behind the wheel, no matter how you feel,
you may not survive,
don't drink and drive.

To those who Text and drive

I've got to send a reply, but I've also got to fly, it's important to tell mom, I am about to come home from prom, but you should think twice, before you decide to use that cellular device.
