

Wake me up
Help me realize this is not a dream
I am not here
Am I laying here on the concrete?
"What I have done?"
I went to this party
It was the party of year
I felt like I had to be there
Telling my self it's only one night of fun
So I take one shot, then another
Then one more
Time to go
Foot on the pedal
I blast the music- can't hear anything else.
I see lights flashing fast
Feeling like I'm in a disco
Then there was blood on my hands
Asking myself did I kill somebody?
Then I looked front of me
Won't someone wake me up?
