

Don't Make it Seven

It's prom night.
All it takes
is one mistake.
Everything is gone.

There's no going back.
There's only that one chance.
Just say no and you'll arrive alive.

Think about the people
that raised you.
Think about the people
that love you.

Think about the people
Who will be at your funeral

Crying.

Because they lost their brother.

Or their sister.

Or their cousin.

Or nephew.

Or son or daughter.

It's not a decision
just about you.
If you just say no
others won't die.

Think about everything
you have to live for.
You'll be going to college soon.
You'll be starting your new job.
Or you'll be defending your country.

Your life is just beginning.

It won't be easy.
You may lose a friend.
You may be mocked.
But are those people really friends?

Think about the people who really care.

Last year
six teens said yes.
They're now dead.
And yes this can happen...

To You.

If those people had said no
more than just six lives would've been saved.

Six families would still be intact.
But instead there's no going back.
Six parents got the knock on the door;
hearing words nobody ever wants to endure.

Think about those who really care.
It's not just a decision you bear.

Don't drink
And drive
Stay safe, Arrive alive.