

Why don't I text and drive?
Let me count the reasons.

One day I'll fall in love
Two parents would lose their daughter
Three siblings would lose their sister
Four dogs wondering why I didn't come back
Five continents I haven't visited
Six basil plants I'm growing
Seven Wonders of the World I want to see
Eight classes I'd never get to finish
Nine sudoku squares I want to fill
Ten seasons of Friends I'd never watch again

I don't text and drive because I'm not done living yet.
